The best nights out

We're all about great nights out in Scarborough!

This year we're bringing you an exciting mix of theatre, comedy, musicals, dance and live music; the perfect distraction from everyday life.

Our cinema shows films six nights a week, with everything from the latest must-see movies to screenings from the National Theatre and Royal Opera House. As part of our dementia-friendly programme we show a classic film every month with free refreshments and free tickets for carers and companions.

There's something for everyone at the SJT, so head our way and join us for a great night out.

Prices

Prices for on stage events differ depending on whether they're SJT productions or touring shows. The best way to save is to join the SJT Circle and get 20% off your tickets.

We don't charge any booking fees - the price you see on the website is the price you pay at checkout.

For preview performances of SJT productions ticket prices are capped at £16 for all seats.

Seats may get more expensive as demand increases.

See the cinema page for pricing information for our on screen events.

If you have any queries or, for accessibility reasons, need seats that are not currently on sale, please speak to our Box Office team.

To give you an idea of what our two spaces are like, check out the seating plans on the next page!

Accessibility

We strive to make life easier for all visitors and have different types of accessible performances/ screenings, accessible seating options, facilities for audio description and more.

Assistance dogs are very welcome, we're proud to be dementia-friendly and we now have automatic doors at our main entrance.

There's more detail on our website, or you can call 01723 370541 or email reception@sjt.uk.com with any queries.

Content & age guidance

We'll add any content warnings to our website where possible. Ages listed are purely a guide, as you're the best judge of what you're comfortable with your young people seeing. Please note that sometimes age guidance may change during rehearsals, and do chat to our Box Office team if you have any concerns.

Getting here

Our beautiful Art Deco building is in Scarborough town centre. We're directly opposite Scarborough Railway Station, so you can't miss us if you're travelling by train.

Parking can sometimes be tricky because of our central location. We've marked some nearby car parks on the map opposite and suggest you check out parkopedia.co.uk. Most parking on street and in council-run car parks is free after 6pm.

The Round

The McCarthy

Please note:

Our building has lots of stairs, so do take the lift if it's easier - use floor 2 for the Round and floor 3 for the McCarthy (if you arrive early and your floor is unavailable, you can wait in our downstairs foyer or in the bar area on floor 1).

Access to most seats involves either climbing or descending stairs - we've marked handrails on stairs in red. In the Round, level access to the front row via the stage is often available on request.

At the end of January 2026 we'll be renumbering the seats in The Round, as shown on the plan above. We're moving to a more intuitive numbering system so it's easier for audiences to find the seats they've booked. If you've got a favourite seat and want to know what the new number is, you can check online at sjt.uk.com/news/renumbering-the-round, or just contact the Box Office who will be happy to help!

The SJT Youth Theatre presents

THE WIND IN THE WILLOWS

By Kenneth Grahame and adapted by Mike Kenny
Directed by Alice Kynman

Step into the wonderful world of The Wind in the Willows, adapted by the acclaimed playwright Mike Kenny and brought to life by the brilliant SJT Youth Theatre.

Join Mole, Ratty, Badger, and the irrepressible Toad on a heart-warming adventure filled with friendship, mischief, and lots of messing about in boats! Kenneth Grahame's The Wind in the Willows, written in 1908, has been loved by generations. A perfect treat for all the family.

Praise for last year's The Owl and the Pussycat Went to See:

"We were absolutely blown away... we smiled and laughed all the way through!"

"An incredibly professional production that we thoroughly enjoyed, you should all be very proud of yourselves!"

"We thought the whole show both slick and interesting. The set was superb. The inclusion of such a wide age range is to be applauded and appreciated."

MURDER FOR Two

The Stephen Joseph Theatre presents

MURDER FOR TWO

Book and Music by Joe Kinosian

Book and Lyrics by Kellen Blair

Directed by Caroline Leslie

A hilarious fast-paced musical whodunit, Murder For Two is a madcap murder mystery with a twist. Two actors play thirteen characters... and the piano. They put the laughter into manslaughter!

When famous novelist Arthur Whitney is found dead at his birthday party, it's time to call in the detectives. The only problem is, they're out of town.

Enter Officer Marcus Moskowicz, a neighbourhood cop who dreams of climbing the ranks. With the clock ticking, it's up to Marcus to prove his super sleuthing skills and solve the crime before the real detective arrives.

This award-winning Broadway show is gloriously silly, devilishly clever and fantastically funny.

"Ingenious! A snazzy double-act that spins out a comic mystery animated by funny, deftly turned songs."

The New York Times

"A silly-clever throwback to 1950s novelty cabaret... wins you over with droll writing and winsome performances."

Time Out

"The question in this nimble murder-mystery spoof is not so much whodunnit as just how do they do that?"

The Round | 2.30pm | Age guidance 12+

A one-off concert performance of Stiles & Drewe's award-winning adaptation of one of the world's most beloved fables, The Ugly Duckling.

Ugly looks quite a bit different from his darling duckling brothers and sisters. Feeling rather foul about himself, the little fowl finds himself on an adventure of self-discovery. Along the way, he meets a whole flock of unique characters and finds out that being different is not a bad thing to be.

The original production of Stiles & Drewe's musical Honk! opened at the SJT in 1997. Since then, it's winged its way around the world in over 8,000 productions winning multiple awards including the 2000 Olivier Award for Best Musical.

All money raised will go towards our New Work Fund, helping us put brand new work on our stages and nurture new talent.

YOUTH ARTS FESTIVAL

A NIGHT AT THE MOVIES

By Rob Salmon

Directed by Ernest Acquah (Drama Club) & Alice Kynman (Youth Theatre)

Disaster strikes at the Scarborough ODEON! The projector has gone bang and Alan the projectionist is stuck in a real-life game of Mission: Impossible with the wiring. Step forward Andy and... Andy! Ushers by day, movie stars by accident, ready to act out the greatest hits of the silver screen.

With Sheila (off popcorn) directing like Gone With the Wind and Mr Arbuthnot, the cinema manager, losing the plot faster than Fast & Furious, the show must go on!

Can our hapless heroes keep the crowd from making a Great Escape - or will this sequel flop harder than Cats? You'll have to join the members of the SJT Drama Club and Youth Theatre to find out!

Praise for last year's Mystery at the Museum:

"Brilliant! Funny, thought provoking and very entertaining."

"What a wonderful show last night! You all did brilliantly!"

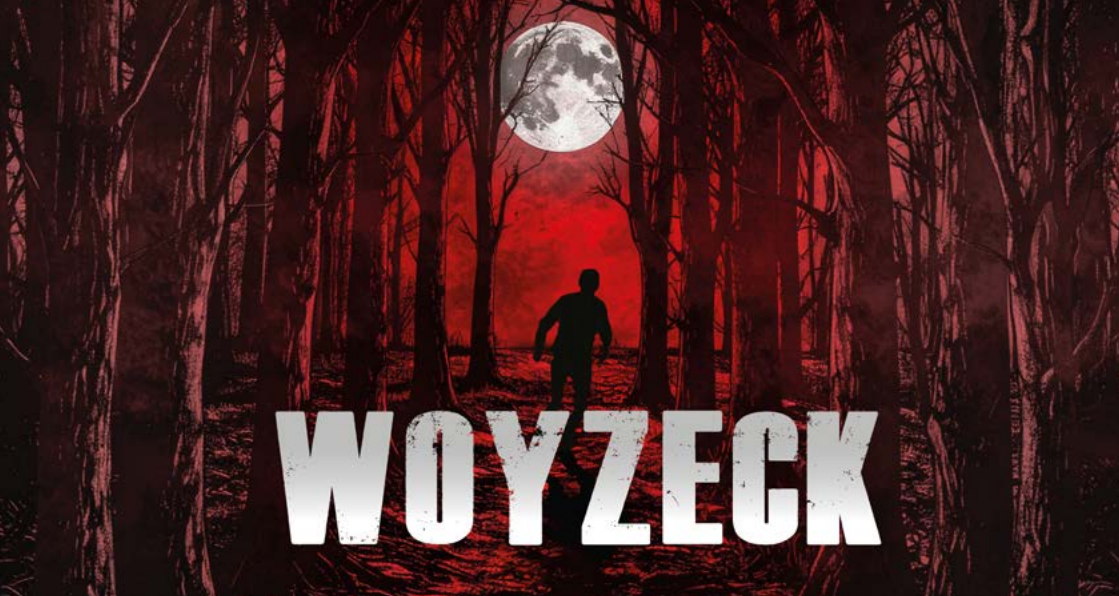

"What a brilliant night showing such young talent. I hope everyone carries on learning and growing in confidence."

The Stephen Joseph Theatre Young Company present

WOYZECK

By Georg Büchner, adapted by Daniel Kramer

Directed by Rob Salmon

Franz Woyzeck is a soldier trapped in poverty, bullied by his superiors and tormented by voices. To earn extra money, he signs up for medical experiments run by the military doctor. Soon he's losing his grip on reality and is pushed to the very edge of sanity.

Raw and unforgettable, Woyzeck is a haunting exploration of love, jealousy and the forces that drive us over the edge.

Woyzeck is considered to be one of the first modern plays, a naturalistic tragedy and a social critique about a soldier driven to madness. Daniel Kramer's striking adaptation of Georg Büchner's unfinished masterpiece is brought vividly to life by the acclaimed SJT Young Company.

"Full marks to the Young Company... whose performances were faultless"

Scarborough News on DNA (2024)

Audience reactions to Education, Education, Education (2025):

"Very impressed indeed. Terrific performances, boundless energy, multiple characters, real pace and strong team-work."

"Congratulations to the young people who were energetic, professional, highly skilled and all contributed superbly as an ensemble."

"Absolutely fantastic performance from all and expertly written and directed."

CALENDAR GIRLS THE MUSICAL

By Gary Barlow and Tim Firth

The Stephen Joseph Theatre, Theatre by the Lake, New Wolsey Theatre and Octagon Theatre Bolton present

Directed by Paul Robinson

The death of a much-loved husband prompts a group of ordinary women in a small Yorkshire Women's Institute to do something extraordinary: create a nude calendar to raise money for charity.

News spreads fast in their community and none of them expect the emotional and personal repercussions, but gradually the making of the fabulous and funny calendar brings each woman unexpectedly into bloom.

The true story of the Calendar Girls launched a global phenomenon, a million copycat calendars, a record-breaking movie, a West End play and now an award-winning musical written by Gary Barlow and Tim Firth.

Packed full of unforgettable songs, every performance continues to prove that there is no such thing as an ordinary woman.

"A life-enhancing thrill."

Metro

"You'll cry with laughter."

The Daily Mail

"A soaring, emotional and hilarious triumph."

The Sun

Originally produced by David Pugh & Dafydd Rogers and The Shubert Organisation. Based on the play CALENDAR GIRLS written by Tim Firth and on the motion picture CALENDAR GIRLS written by Tim Firth and Juliette Towhidi. CALENDAR GIRLS THE MUSICAL is presented by arrangement with Concord Theatricals Ltd.

Handbagged

The Stephen Joseph Theatre presents

HANDBAGGED

Written by Moira Buffini

Directed by Hannah Tyrrell-Pinder

Queen Elizabeth II – the monarch.

Margaret Thatcher – her most powerful subject.

Two women meet once a week for eleven years.

One believes there is no such thing as society. The other has committed her life to serving it.

Moira Buffini's wickedly funny comedy imagines what happened behind closed palace doors when the world's most powerful women clashed.

Winner of a 2014 Olivier Award and West-End smash hit, Handbagged takes us from 1979 to 1990 and asks if the Queen and the Iron Lady ever found common ground, or did their stiff upper lips reign supreme?

"Wickedly funny."
Evening Standard

"Perfectly pitched between the comic and the serious."
The Guardian

"Deliriously funny."

The Stephen Joseph Theatre presents

THE TRIAL OF ROMEO OSCAR

Written and directed by Alan Ayckbourn

In space no one can hear you dream.

In the year 2194, humanity is scattered around the solar system and day-to-day life on earth looks very different. Preparations are underway for a landmark legal case.

Romeo Oscar, a military issue android, is on trial for murder: the first non-human to be tried in a court of law. The circumstances surrounding the incident are unclear, the evidence is polarising and selecting an impartial jury is proving a challenge.

Alan Ayckbourn's latest play is a courtroom drama exploring a question that artists have been pursuing for centuries – what makes us human?

"A gift from a god of playwriting."
The Yorkshire Post on Earth Angel (2025)

"Very funny... a beautifully performed drama."
The Observer on Show & Tell (2024)

"Smart, funny, speculative sci-fi comedy."
The Stage on Constant Companions (2023)

"Ayckbourn's deft and light touch takes you deviously into darker reaches of the soul."

PUSS IN BOOTS

By Charles Perrault
Adapted by Nick Lane

Meet Sam. The unluckiest boy in Scarbarocia.

Not as smart as his brother. Not as popular as his sister. Small, shy, no good at anything and allergic to everything. So when his mum and dad give him a cat for Christmas, Sam is afraid he'll sneeze himself into New Year. Not that anyone would notice. Or even care.

Then the cat speaks to him.

*"Get me a pair of boots, a hat
A glass of milk, and just like that
I'll make all your dreams come true –
Now tell me: What d'you want to do?"*

Suddenly the boot is on the other foot. Puss's foot. And Sam's life is about to get a whole lot more exciting!

The team who brought you the UK Theatre Award-winning Beauty and the Beast, Aladdin and Sleeping Beauty invite you to spend Christmas with the craftiest cat in the kingdom. There'll be songs, silliness and more saucers of cream than you can shake a mouse at.*

Fun for families (and felines) of all ages.

*You should never shake mice. They do not like it. At all.

Wed 18 – Sat 21 Mar, 7.30pm

plus Thu 19, 1.30pm & Sat 21, 2.30pm

Nella wants steak and beer for her birthday, but these are not on the menu of the exclusive Grand Babylon Hotel – so her millionaire father obligingly buys the entire hotel. However, the hotel is not all it seems. A rollicking comedy thriller with a virtuoso cast of five bringing you many faces, chases, glamour and intrigue. A riotous evening out!

The Round | Age 12+ | From £10

Rob Rouse: Funny Bones

Sat 21 Mar, 7.45pm

A relentlessly funny and daft evening of comedy from a one-man whirlwind who pulls the audience into his craftily spun tall tales with bucketfuls of manic energy, first-class stagecraft, eerily convincing characters, and a barrage of brilliant one-liners.

★★★★★ "Comedy guaranteed to lighten even the darkest of moods" Edinburgh Evening News

"Rob is always hilarious" Nina Conti

The McCarthy | Age 16+ | £15

Doris the Dormouse

Tue 7 Apr, 1.30pm

Wed 8 Apr, 11am & 1.30pm

Doris the Dormouse begins to prepare for her first winter alone but the cold is fast approaching, and with time running out... will she have enough of the best berries in town to get by this winter, or will she go hungry? A brand-new gentle and heartwarming story filled with big characters, original live folk music and puppetry.

The McCarthy | Age 3+ | £10/£8

My Brother's A Genius

Thu 5 Mar, 1pm & 7.30pm

Fri 6 Mar, 11am

An explosive new play about learning to fall, fail and find our own ways to fly, following Daisy and Luke – twins navigating life in a high-rise estate. Based on conversations with young people across the UK, this show combines poetry, music and movement in a humorous exploration of neurodiversity, sibling rivalry, and the weight of expectations.

The Round | Age 12+ | £15

Night & Day: Sam Jewison Sings Cole Porter

Sat 7 Mar, 7.30pm

Sam Jewison returns with his sell-out solo show celebrating Cole Porter. The acclaimed singer and pianist will perform songs such as I've Got You Under My Skin, Night and Day and Just One of Those Things alongside reimagined highlights from Porter's trailblazing musicals like High Society, Anything Goes and Kiss Me, Kate.

The Round | All ages | £23

Meet Fred

Thu 13 & Fri 14 Mar, 7.30pm

Ten years, 20+ countries, and countless laughs later, Meet Fred is back! This darkly funny, internationally acclaimed satire follows Fred, a puppet fighting for his independence as his Puppetry Living Allowance is under threat. A hilariously subversive take on bureaucracy, disability rights, and what it means to be human.

"Sharp, funny and vastly entertaining" The Guardian

The McCarthy | Age 14+ | £15

The Ragged Trousered Philanthropists

Thu 16 Apr, 7.45pm

A group of painters and decorators are renovating a town house for Mayor Sweater. They are joined by artist Owen, whose spirited attacks on the dishonesty of capitalism highlight the exploitation in their workplace. This one-person version of the Robert Tressell novel features projection, live music and song.

★★★★★ "Tremendous" The Times

The McCarthy | Age 11+ | £16

The Freshwater Five

Fri 1 May, 2.30pm & 7.30pm

Five fishermen. £53 million of cocaine. An ongoing fight for justice. Playwright Liam Patrick Harrison's powerful, poignant and poetic debut production that asks the fundamental question – innocent fishermen or international drug smugglers?

"Creatively staged with arresting visuals... striking performances"

Fringe Biscuit

The Round | Age 13+ | £15

The Gruffalo

Fri 8 May, 1.30pm & 4.30pm

Sat 9 & Sun 10 May, 10.30am & 1.30pm

Tall Stories' much-loved magical, musical adaptation of the classic by Julia Donaldson and Axel Scheffler is celebrating its 25th anniversary. Will the story of the scary Gruffalo save Mouse from ending up as dinner? After all, there's no such thing as a Gruffalo – is there?

★★★★★ "An absolute delight" The Scotsman

The Round | Age 3+ | £10/£15

Raven's Spring Fling

Sun 17 May, 2.30pm

Raven is delighted to be returning to celebrate the joy, happiness and wonder of springtime. This uplifting, six-piece, multi-instrumental band will take you on a musical journey with their original songs and traditional music to welcome this lovely season. Tickets include refreshments – all profits to the SJT. The McCarthy | All ages | £20

Spitfire Girls

Thu 21 – Sat 23 May, 7.30pm
plus Thu 21, 1.30pm & Sat 23, 2.30pm

New Year's Eve, 1959. Decades after answering the call, two women separated by the war meet again. As we hear their story, we're transported back to a time when female pioneers defied expectations and soared through the skies. Funny and heart-warming, this is an untold story of strength, courage and loss. But above all else, hope.

The Round | Age 10+ | From £10

Dial 1 for UK

Wed 27 May, 7.45pm

Every night in New Delhi, Uday Kumar (UK) answers helpline calls from Britain while dreaming of being British himself, filling his YouTube channel with visions of a sophisticated new life of fish and chips and tea with the royals. Mohit Mathur's hilarious and poignant one-man play is a rare chance to rethink much you've assumed about those who hope to live amongst us.

The McCarthy | Age 12+ | £15

Alfie Moore: Acocalypse Now

Sat 13 Jun, 7.30pm

The Four Horsemen of Rising Crime, Global Warming, AI and Culture Wars are galloping towards us. Are we on the road to hell? And can we avoid the potholes? 'Fair Cop' Alfie has the antidote to the breakdown of law and order, fake news and the price of baked beans.

"Brilliantly funny...genuinely hilarious"
David Mitchell

The Round | Age 14+ | £22

Haus of Games: Tarts with Soggy Bottoms

Sun 19 Jul, 4pm

A deliciously silly summer show packed with bingo, bonkers games, cheeky prizes and plenty of cream horns! Join in by dressing to impress – think The Vicar of Dibley meets Calendar Girls... vicars, tarts and everything in between. And don't forget to bring your oversized fruit and veg for judging! Snacks available. Eat Me @ the SJT | Age 18+ | £16

Did you know...?

In 2026 we will replace 100% of our house lights in The Round with LED lights, alongside the LED theatre lights we've had since 2017.

This work will result in an 83% reduction in energy usage per year – estimated as a reduction of 1,142kWh and 257kg less carbon.

Awake My Soul: The Mumford & Sons Story

Thu 28 May, 7.30pm

Four masterful live musicians come together in waistcoats, skinny jeans and bushy beards to celebrate the best of Mumford & Sons' iconic music and their explosive rise to fame. With all the very best hits, including Little Lion Man, I Will Wait, The Cave, Rushmore and many more, this is a stomp and holler not to be missed!

The Round | Ages 8+ | £23

Daniel Foxx: How Lovely

Sat 30 May, 7.45pm

Award-winning stand-up Daniel, best known for his viral comedy videos, was determined to handle his Big Breakup with the grace of Julia Roberts. He didn't. Join him as he navigates dating in your 30s, Le Creuset addiction and 12-step skincare routines, all while trying very hard to emanate love and light.

★★★★★ "Utterly hilarious and effortlessly charismatic" Rolling Stone

The McCarthy | Age 14+ | £17

10CCLO

Thu 11 Jun, 7.30pm

Dreadlock Holiday, Mr Blue Sky, The Things We Do for Love, Art for Art's Sake, Living Thing, I'm Not In Love... just a few of the massive hits from two of the best loved bands of all time: 10cc and The Electric Light Orchestra. 10CCLO are the only tribute to cover both of these iconic bands together in one fantastic show. Presented in-the-round for one night only.

The Round | All ages | £23
